

Hood Canal & Strait Riparian Workshop

Tuesday, June 11, 2024, 1-4pm

Join Zoom Meeting

AGENDA

Objectives:

- Understand the needs for implementation of riparian protection and restoration work in our watersheds
- Engage with funders to inform funding programs
- Initiate local riparian strategy discussions

Time	Topic	Presenter
1:00 - 1:10 pm	Introduction and why are we here	Facilitators
1:10 - 1:35 pm	Local, state, and federal funding partners share a brief overview of their upcoming or current riparian funding opportunities (5 min each) <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Climate Resilience Riparian Systems Lead (CR2SL)- Dept. of Ecology Combined Water Quality Funding Program- RCO Riparian Grant Program- NOAA riparian funding opportunities- State Conservation Commission Riparian Grant Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Colin Hume, WA Dept. of Ecology- Carson Moscoso, WA Dept. of Ecology- Nick Norton, WA Recreation and Conservation Office- Chemine Jackels, NOAA- Kristin Marshall, WA State Conservation Commission
1:35 - 2:20 pm	Around the room sharing - Share gaps and challenges and capture them on whiteboard <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Outcomes from other riparian workshops around the Sound- Group vote to determine main discussions topics	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- All participants- Allan Warren, BEF- Kayla Seaforth, BEF
2:20 - 2:25 pm	5 minute stretch break
2:25 - 3:40 pm	Topic discussions (25 minutes each, 3 topics)	All participants
3:40 - 4:00 pm	Wrap up topic discussions, feedback from funding sponsors, and next steps	Facilitators